Mary Yoder is a sweet sixteen year old Amish girl living with her fourteen year old brother Zachariah, whom she and everyone else calls Zach, and her parents Daniel and Ariel. She wants to leave the Amish and live in regular society. The thing stopping her is love of family and her brother not yet out of school so he can work full time on their farm.

Mary knows nothing of the supernatural world because to her it is all evil.

Yet she has dreams of something supernatural attacking her. Then she meets Jerald and finds out not just how real the supernatural world is. Along with how love can change a person. First Love Bites especially for this young Amish girl
